Subject: Fw: PAW EQC Hearing trip for landowners
Importance: High

Committees:

The committees made the decision to get as many landowners as possible to attend the EQC Hearing on January 16 - 18, 2006, where the EQC will be deciding on the PRBRC petition. The committees decided the best way to get a large showing of landowners to Cheyenne was to charter busses. Buses from the Powder River Basin and the Big Horn Basin were the best option to get the most diverse group of landowners.

PAW has reserved two busses and hotel rooms in Cheyenne for the 16-18. We will be financing this trip by subscription through individual companies.

One bus will leave Gillette with a stop in Buffalo and Casper ending in Cheyenne. The second bus will leave Cody with a stop in Thermopolis ending in Cheyenne. Both will leave on the 16th. There are currently 90 rooms reserved at the Holiday Inn in Cheyenne. There is a reception room booked at the Holiday Inn for the evening of the 16th.

~~For the busses, we are $2,500. This does not include the drivers room, tips or tax. Rooms are $97.00 each.~~

We need a definite confirmation of the numbers attending by the 14th of December for both the hotel and the busses. ~~How much you are willing to contribute towards the effort.~~

Thanks
John
