RE: In re Two Elk Power Plant - EQC Docket No. 07-2601
Documents provided by Two Elk Generation Partners to DEQ/AQD

Dear Brad,

After the DEQ/AQD issued its August 22, 2007 Letter to Two Elk Generation Partners (TEGP), TEGP made available for the Department of Environmental Quality, Air Quality Division's (DEQ/AQD) review over four banker-boxes of documents marked "Confidential Business Information." The DEQ/AQD reviewed and tabbed certain of those documents to include in the DEQ/AQD administrative record. The documents tabbed and retained by the DEQ/AQD are listed in Attachment A to this letter. The remainder of the documents have been returned to TEGP.

TEGP has requested that the DEQ/AQD deny inspection of certain of those documents retained by the DEQ/AQD that contain TEGP's trade secrets, privileged information, and confidential commercial and financial information ("Confidential Business Information"). I have determined that some of the documents listed in Attachment A are available for public inspection and other documents contain Confidential Business Information. The DEQ/AQD will afford the documents listed in Attachment A that contain Confidential Business Information the protections of WYO. STAT. ANN. § 35-11-1101 and 16-4-203(d).

It is the DEQ/AQD's understanding, that TEGP, by requesting such documents and information be maintained and treated by the DEQ/AQD as CBI, will defend against any administrative or judicial action filed by any third party seeking to compel the release of information or disclosure of any of the CBI documents listed in Attachment A.

Sincerely,

John Corra
