Docket No. 05-3203

STIPULATION FOR STAY OF PROCEEDINGS
AND SCHEDULING DEADLINES

Anadarko Petroleum Corporation ("Anadarko"), through its counsel Holland & Hart LLP, and Petitioners, through their counsel, Kirven & Kirven, P.C., respectfully request the Environmental Quality Council ("EQC") to stay its final scheduling order and the deadlines contained therein for a period of 60 days for the following reasons:

1. Anadarko and Petitioners have agreed upon a proposed settlement of the appeal and believe that this matter may be able to be resolved without the cost and expenditure of time and resources that a contested case hearing would require and need additional time to consummate a settlement.

2. Within 60 days, the parties will be able to ascertain whether settlement can be achieved or whether this matter will require a contested case hearing before the EQC.

WHEREFORE, in lieu of filing the prehearing conference memorandum and final witness and exhibit list on June 29, 2007, Anadarko and Petitioners hereby respectfully request that this stay be granted. A form of proposed order is attached hereto.

DATED this 29th day of June, 2007.
