WHEATLAND WASTEWATER STORAGE ) Docket No. 05-3801
AND LAND APPLICATION. )

TOWN OF WHEATLAND'S EXPERT DESIGNATION

COMES NOW the Town of Wheatland and designates the following expert witnesses:

- A. Russell Schamel may be called. He will testify as follows:
  - 1. He has been the Town Engineer since approximately 1994. Mr. Schamel is a professional civil engineer licensed in the State of Wyoming since 1983, and the State of Arizona since 1988. He has been involved on a continual basis with the Town of Wheatland wastewater treatment since 1994. Mr. Schamel is fully acquainted with the DEQ application process. He was the professional who completed the design of the treated wastewater irrigation system. Mr. Schamel prepared the applications for the permits that are at issue.
  - 2. Mr. Schamel will address and provide professional opinions on those issues listed in Petitioners' Notice of Legal Issues.
  - 3. Mr. Schamel will address and provide professional opinions on the groundwater formations on the subject property.
  - 4. The extent of Mr. Schamel's testimony and expert opinions will not be known until discovery is complete in this case.
  - 5. Mr. Schamel will testify as to all other matters relevant and at issue.

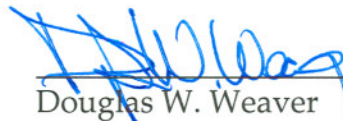

B. Lou Harmon of the Department of Environmental Quality, Water Quality Division, may be called as an expert. It is anticipated he will testify as to the application submitted by the Town of Wheatland and the plans as they apply to the permit or permits in question.

He will testify as to the quality of water and the DEQ regulations for land application. He will testify as to why the permits were issued by the Wyoming DEQ. In addition:

1. Mr. Harmon will address and provide if necessary professional opinions on those issues listed in Petitioners' Notice of Legal Issues.
2. The extent of Mr. Harmon's testimony and expert opinions will not be known until discovery is complete in this case.
3. Mr. Harmon will testify as to all other matters relevant and at issue.

The Town of Wheatland reserves the right to list additional experts after discovery. The Town of Wheatland reserves the right to call the experts designated by the other parties.

Dated this 6th day of April, 2006.
